The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday July 2, 1801.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in Command from His Majesty to acquaint you, that, on account of the advanced Period of the Season, and the State of Public Business, he is induced to relieve you from a longer Attendance in Parliament.

His Majesty highly commends the Wisdom, Temper, and Diligence, which have marked all your Proceedings; and particularly acknowledges the Assiduity and Zeal with which you have pursued the Investigation of the important Subjects brought under your Consideration in consequence of the severe Pressure occasioned by the high Price of Corn. The beneficial Effects of the Measures you have suggested for the Alleviation of this Calamity, have afforded His Majesty great Consolation, and He has the utmost Satisfaction in indulging the Hope that, under the Favour of Providence, the Blessings of Plenty will be restored by the Produce of the ensuing Harvest.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has directed us to return you His particular Thanks for the liberal Provision which you have made for the various Branches of the public Service. While He regrets the Necessity of Supplies so large, it is a Relief to His Majesty to observe, that the Resources and continued Prosperity of the Country have enabled you to distribute the public Burthens in such a Manner, as to press with as little Severity as possible on His faithful Subjects.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The brilliant and repeated Successes of His Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, important as they are in their immediate Consequences, are not less satisfactory to His Majesty's Mind, as affording fresh and decisive Proofs of that vigorous Exertion, undaunted Valour, and steady Perseverance which distinguish the national Character; and on which the chief Reliance must be placed for Respect Abroad, and for Confidence and Security at Home. Events so honourable to the British Name derive, at the present Moment, peculiar Value in His Majesty's Estimation, from their Tendency to facilitate the Attainment of the great Object of His unceasing Solicitude, the Restoration of Peace on fair and adequate Terms. They furnish at the same Time an additional Pledge, that if the Sentiments of Moderation and Justice which will ever govern his Majesty's Conduct, should be rendered unavailing, in this Instance, by unreasonable Pretensions on the Part of His Enemies, the Spirit and Firmness of His

People will continue to be manifested by such Efforts and Sacrifices, as may be necessary for asserting the Honour of His Majesty's Crown, and for maintaining the permanent Interests of the Empire.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read.

After which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By Virtue of His Majesty's Commission under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in His Majesty's Name, and in Obedience to His Commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday the Sixth Day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Sixth Day of August next.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Thomas Rogers, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Mercury, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Trieste Road, the 28th May 1801.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to enclose for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of my Letter of the 26th Instant, to Lord Keith, giving a Detail of a very gallant Service performed by the Boats of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, which reflects great Credit to the Officers and Men engaged in it, and the hard Case of Lieutenant Mather being obliged to relinquish the Prize, after 'Three Hours' Possession, will not, I trust, in the Opinion of their Lordships, lessen the Merit of the Enterprize.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

T. ROGERS.

Mercury, off Ancona, 26th May 1801.

MY LORD,

HAVING received Information by a small Vessel I captured Yesterday from Ancona, that His Majesty's late Sloop Bull Dog was laying in the Mole of that Port ready for Sea, with Supplies on board for the French Army in Egypt; I judged it necessary to make an Attempt to take or destroy her with the Boats of the Mercury; and as our Success depended upon surprising the Enemy, who was ignorant of our Arrival in the Adriatic, (the Fortifications about the Mole being too formidable to justify the Attempt in any other Way,) I therefore made sail directly for Ancona, and came to an Anchor, soon after it was dark, off the Mole; the Boats were accordingly prepared, and left the Ship at Half past Ten o'Clock, under the Command of Mr. W. Mather, First Lieutenant, from whose good Conduct the Bull Dog was surprised, and carried about Midnight, the Boats having got alongside without being hailed by the Sentinels; the Alania was, however, immediately given along the Mole, to which the Ship's Stern was secured by the Two Ends of a Bower Cable, and Three Cables out a-head, these were soon cut by the People appointed for that Purpose, and the Boats began to tow, exposed to a heavy Fire of Cannon and Musketry from the Mole, but as there was a favourable light Breeze, the Sails were set, and in less than an Hour the Ship got without Reach of the Batteries, and was completely ours, but unfortunately it fell calm, and a Current setting her along the Coast near the Shore, a Crowd of Boats (some of which were Gun Boats), filled with Men, came out to attack her; Mr. Mather now found his Situation extremely critical, having the Hatchways to guard to prevent the Enemy rising from below, the Boat's Crews fatigued with rowing all Night, and the Gun-Boats approaching fast and raking the Ship, he had therefore the Mortification of feeling himself obliged to relinquish his Prize, after being in Possession of her above Three Hours, and unfortunately failed in several Attempts before he retreated, to set her on Fire.

The Moment I could discover the Bull Dog was out of the Mole, I got the Mercury under Weigh, but it was almost a Calm and impossible to get near her, as she had drifted with the Current to a considerable Distance from where the Mercury lay, and we experienced the mortifying Disappointment of seeing her towed back to the very Spot from whence she had been so gallantly taken; it is nevertheless some Degree of Satisfaction to know, that her Voyage must be at least delayed for a considerable Time, if not quite defeated, her Masts and Yards being shot through and disabled in many Places, and she has received considerable Damage in her Hull and Rigging.

The gallant Conduct of the Officers and Men employed upon this little Enterprize will, I trust, meet with your Lordship's Approbation; and it is from a Desire of doing Justice to their Merits that I have been drawn into this, otherwise unnecessarily, long Detail. I have to regret the Loss of Two brave Fellows killed, and Four wounded upon this Occasion. The Enemy had above Twenty killed, wounded and drowned.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

T. ROGERS.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 15, 1801.

Downing-Street, July 15, 1801.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been this Day received from the Earl of Elgin, by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

MY LORD, Constantinople, June 5, 1801.

AN Opportunity for writing to Europe having occurred, I avail myself of it to mention to your Lordship some further Details from Egypt, which have just reached me in a private Letter from Lord Keith, dated 22d May.

The Enemy, after quitting Rahmania, made a wonderful March, and reached Cairo on the 12th of May. It is supposed they then advanced to attack the Vizir at Belbeis.

General Hutchinson, who was in his Progress from Rahmania towards Cairo, had, by the Aid of the Arabs, taken a Convoy of Five Hundred Camels, with their Escort of Six Hundred Men. It was destined for Alexandria, which is understood to be in great Want of some Articles of Provisions and of Water. General Hutchinson, in his March up the Country, observes, that the Inhabitants are in the highest Degree incensed against the French, putting to Death every one that falls into their Hands.

Admiral Blankett, in his Letters to Lord Keith of the 6th, acquaints him with the Arrival of the Reinforcements from India under the Command of General Baird, Colonel Wellesley, Colonel Murray, &c.

After the surrendering of Damietta, a Corps of Seven Hundred Men embarked on the Lake Burlos for France, and were taken by Lord Keith.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ELGIN.

Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury,
&c. &c. &c.

MY LORD, Constantinople, June 8, 1801.

A Messenger is this Moment come in from Lord Keith, whose private Letter I beg Leave to transcribe.

" Off Alexandria, May 23, 1801.

" By a Letter I have received from the Capitan Pacha, dated at Kemesheriff, on the 19th, His Excellency informs me, that the Secretary of the Grand Vizir had arrived with the agreeable Intelligence of the French and Cophts having moved forward from Cairo, to attack the Vizir's Army, but that His Highness had advanced with his Artillery and Cavalry, defeated the Enemy, and forced them to retreat."

Lord Keith appears to have had no further Details of this important Action.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ELGIN.

Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury,

TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1801.

Downing-Street, July 21, 1801.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury; His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from the Earl of Elgin and Major Holloway:

*Imperial Ottoman Camp of the Grand Vizier, Benalhaffer,
May 20, 1801.*

MY LORD,

IHAD the Honor of addressing your Lordship on the 2d May from Salahich; which Place His Highness the Grand Vizier left the 7th, and the following Day arrived at Belbeis, where the Advanced Corps of his Army had been encamped for some Time before.

On the 15th Instant, His Highness received Intelligence that the Enemy had early that Morning marched a considerable Force from Cairo on the Road towards Belbeis, where His Highness was then encamped. In the Evening, a further Confirmation of this Intelligence was brought, when the Enemy was in full March. The Vizier after Dark ordered Tahir Pacha with Three Thousand Cavalry, and Three light Field Pieces, to advance to meet them, and if a favourable Opportunity offered during the Obscurity of the Night to attack, if not, to impede their Progress as much as possible. About Ten o'Clock at Night they met, Three Leagues from Camp, when each halted and lay on their Arms during the Night, and until Eight o'Clock in the Morning, at which Time Tahir Pacha commenced an Attack. He was soon after reinforced by Fifteen Hundred Cavalry. It was now found the Enemy had come forward with about Fourteen Pieces of Artillery, Six Hundred Cavalry and Four Thousand Infantry. His Highness therefore ordered Mehemed Pacha to move forward with Five Thousand Men, Cavalry and Albanian Infantry, and Nine light Field Pieces; the Enemy had Eight-Pounders in the Field. His Highness afterwards advanced himself, and took the Command, which was attended with the happiest Effect.

The Enemy moved into a Wood of Date Trees, where they were attacked by the Cavalry and Infantry with great Spirit for Three Hours, when the Enemy retired from the Wood, taking Position on the Plain, their Left to the Wood, and forming a Hollow Square on the Right. The Albanian Infantry advanced to the Edge of the Wood, and in this Situation galled them considerably; and upon the Turkish Cavalry threatening their Right, they changed Position, and attempted to gain the Heights, in which they were prevented by a rapid Movement of Cavalry, who gained the Summit. In this Manœuvre they were annoyed by Two Guns, which were advanced by His Highness on the Occasion. At this Time the French commenced a decided Retreat, and were driven beyond El Hanka, a Distance not less than Seven Miles from the Place of the First Operations. The Grand Vizier, who had commanded his Troops with great Gallantry and prompt Decision, then gave Orders for them not to pursue any further. The Loss on either Side for the Time they were engaged was small. The Turks had about Thirty killed and Eighty wounded. The French I think had about Fifty killed and One Prisoner; the Number of their wounded could not be ascertained, as they took them off the Field.

The Turkish Force engaged on this Occasion did not at any Time exceed Nine Thousand.

Whilst I was congratulating his Highness in the Field of Battle on the Success of the Day, we received additional Satisfaction by the Arrival of the Intelligence of the Capture of Fort Lesbic at Damietta, and two smaller Forts depending on it, by a Detachment from the Vizier's Army. I had the Honor of acquainting your Lordship, in my Letter, of the 2d May, that His Highness intended sending a Force against Damietta. This Intention he carried into Effect on the 6th, by ordering Ibrahim Pacha, with Two Thousand Five Hundred Men, and Five Pieces of Artillery, to march immediately for that Purpose: and it appears by Ibrahim Pacha's Report to the Vizier, that every Arrangement had been made for the Attack of Fort Lesbie on the Morning of the 14th Instant, when it was discovered that the Fort was evacuated, and the Garrison had retired.

I beg Leave to inform your Lordship, that during the Action of the 16th Instant, myself and Major Hope of the Royal Artillery, were in the Field with the Grand Vizier, Captain Lacey of the Royal Engineers with Mehmed Pacha, and Captain Leake of the Royal Artillery with Tahir Pacha, to render every Assistance in our Power.

The combined Forces under Major-General Hutchinson and the Capitan Pacha, are about Five Hours Distance in the Delta, but are expected here in a Day or Two. I received a Letter from the General this Morning, who informs me he has taken a Convoy of Five Hundred and Fifty Camels, and Six Hundred French Prisoners.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
(Signed) CHARLES HOLLOWAY,
Major Commandant, &c.

MY LORD, Constantinople, June 21, 1801.

I Have the most sincere Satisfaction in forwarding to your Lordship the inclosed Dispatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Holloway.

The modest and unassuming Manner in which this deserving Officer has mentioned himself and the British under his Orders, imposes upon me the Obligation of stating to your Lordship, what I had learnt by their private Communications to me from Jassa and Gaza; that as soon as the Determination was formed for the Vizier to advance into Egypt, Lieutenant-Colonel Holloway proposed that Distribution of the Turkish Army, and that Order of March, which have effectually ensured this unlooked-for Success over the French. The Advanced Guard was composed of a select Body of Cavalry under Tahir Pacha, and of Albanian Infantry under Mehmed Pacha; the First, accompanied by Captain Leake, the Second, by Captain Lacey, each receiving their Orders from Colonel Holloway, who remained near the Person of the Vizier.

It is by this well-combined Disposition, by the Endeavours which were strenuously exercised to prevail upon this Corps to disembarass themselves of their superfluous Attendants, and by giving Confidence to the Turks in their own Means, that Colonel Holloway has been enabled to bring these Troops to keep in Check, during many Hours, a French Army of superior Force—to counteract its Plans—to attack it—to seize every Advantage of its Positions and of Ground, and, after manœuvring with Science, during Seven Hours, to repulse it with Loss, and gain a complete Victory. In the Account which the Vizier has sent of this Action to the Porte, His Highness speaks in the highest Terms of the Service done by the Artillery, which Major Hope is well known to be so very capable of directing.

(Signed) BELGIN.
Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury,
&c. &c. &c.

Downing-Street, July 21, 1801.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely Hutchinson, K. B. commanding His Majesty's Forces in Egypt.

Head-Quarters, Camp, near Alkam,
MY LORD, June 1, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the French abandoned the Position of El-Ast, on the 7th of May, which we occupied the same Evening, and on the 9th, we advanced to Rahmanieh, where the French were posted with upwards of Three Thousand Infantry and Eight Hundred Cavalry. We at first imagined that they might have endeavoured to have maintained that Position, but our Corps on the Eastern Bank of the Nile having got into their Rear, took the Fort of Rahmanieh in reverse, which probably induced the Enemy to retire in the Night between the 9th and 10th, leaving a Garrison in the Fort, which surrendered in the Morning, amounting to One Hundred and Ten Men, commanded by a Chef de Brigade; we also took the same Day, about Fifty Cavalry and Three Officers coming from Alexandria.

As the Enemy retired towards Cairo, it became necessary to follow them, in order to cover the Army of the Grand Vizier, and to secure a Junction with the expected Reinforcement from India.

Nothing happened of any Importance until the 14th, when we fell in with a valuable Convoy of Germs on the Nile. They had come from Cairo down the Canal of Menouff, which joins the Damietta and Rosetta Branches of the River. From this Circumstance, they knew nothing of the Retreat of General La Grange from Rahmanieh. About One Hundred and Fifty Prisoners fell into our Hands, and several heavy Guns, some of them intended for the Defence of Alexandria. The Convoy in itself was very valuable, and is a great Loss to the Enemy. We found on board all Kinds of Clothing, Wine, Spirits, &c. &c. and about Five Thousand Pounds in Money.

On the 17th, when encamped at Alkam, we were informed by the Arabs that a considerable Body of French, coming from Alexandria, were advancing towards the Nile, near the Spot where the Boats of the Capitan Pacha then were. The Cavalry were immediately ordered out, with Two Pieces of Cannon, under the Command of Brigadier-General Doyle, supported by his Brigade of Infantry. Colonel Cavalier, who commanded the French Convoy, as soon as he perceived the Boats of the Capitan Pacha, suspected that our Army must be near, and therefore retired into the Desert, where we followed him. The Cavalry came up with him, after a March of about Three Hours. A Flag of Truce was sent in to them, by Major Wilson of the Hompesch, requiring them to surrender, on Condition that their Private Property should be respected, and that they should be sent to France by the first convenient Opportunity. With these Terms they complied, and laid down their Arms. They amounted, in all, to about Six Hundred Men; Infantry, Cavalry, and Artillery, together with a considerable Portion of the Dromedary Corps, One Four-Pounder, and Five Hundred and Fifty Camels. The Prisoners taken are all Frenchmen, and of the best Troops they had in Egypt.

On the 17th of May the Enemy retired from the Fort of Lifbêt, on the Damietta Branch, and formed a Junction with about Two Hundred Men which they had at Burlos: this Fort they also evacuated, and embarked in Five small Vessels, Four of which have been taken and carried into Aboukir Bay; the Fifth endeavoured to escape towards Cyprus, but a Turkish Frigate was left in chase of her, so that it is more than probable she has shared the same Fate.

The Garrisons of the Two Forts consisted of about Seven Hundred Men; so that in all we have taken, from the 9th to the 20th, near Sixteen Hundred Men, which makes a considerable Diminution of the Enemy's Force in this Country.

The French made a most extraordinary rapid March from Rahmanich to Gizah, where they arrived on the 13th, and immediately crossed the River to Boulac.

On the 15th, they marched to attack the Grand Vizir's Army. His Highness anticipated their Intention, and made a forward Movement with a considerable Body of Cavalry on the Night between the 15th and 16th. The Armies remained for some Hours in Presence of each other, when the Ottoman Troops attacked at about Eight o'Clock in the Morning, and after an Action of Seven Hours, the French retired, having lost between Three and Four Hundred Men killed and wounded. They were nearly the same People who had retreated from Rahmanich, and were about Four Thousand or Four Thousand Five Hundred Men.

I congratulate your Lordship upon the Event of this very important Action; I have also much Pleasure in informing you, that the Mamalukes, under the Orders of Osman Bey, (Successor of Murad Bey,) have joined us, to the Amount of about Fifteen Hundred Cavalry, inferior, certainly, to none in the World. I am sanguine enough to hope that the most serious good Effects will arise from this Junction, as they have a most intimate Knowledge of the Country, and the greatest Influence amongst the Inhabitants.

I enclose you the Capitulation of the Fort of Rahmanich, and also a Return of the Killed and Wounded on the 9th of May, which I rejoice has been so very inconsiderable.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. HELY HUTCHINSON.

To the Right Honorable Lord Hobart.

II. The Garrison shall be sent back to France, and shall not serve against the King of England, nor against his Allies, until exchanged conformably to the Cartel between the two Nations. — Granted.

LORD DUNCAN'S VICTORY.

AT a General Meeting of the Subscribers to the Fund raised for the Benefit of the Wounded, and the Widows and Families of such as were Killed, in the glorious Action of the 11th of October 1797, convened by Public Advertisement,

CALVERLEY BEWICKE, Esq; in the Chair,
The following Report was read:

The Committee appointed to manage the Subscriptions raised for the Relief of the Wounded, and the Families or Relatives of those who were Killed, on board the Fleet under the Command of Admiral Lord Duncan, in the Action of the 11th Day of October 1797, beg Leave to state the following Report:

The Liberality of the Public having kept Pace with the enterprising Spirit and Valour of British Seamen, the Committee have been enabled to testify the high Sense entertained by the Public of the Merits and Services of those brave Men who suffered, in the Cause of their Country, on a Day that will ever be recorded for one of those important and signal Victories which British Fleets have obtained during this War over the Fleets of Enemies.

From the many Difficulties and Impediments in the Distribution of so liberal a Subscription, according to Rank, to Families, and to the Nature of Wounds, and in the finding out the immediate Objects of the public Bounty, or their Families and Relatives, the Committee have not been able to terminate their Labours until the present Moment; and nothing but the Sense of their Duty, aided by the active Exertions of the Commanders and Officers of this gallant Fleet, and the great and unremitting Attention of the Magistrates, Gentry, and Clergy of Great Britain and Ireland, both as to Enquiries and as to the Distribution of Gratuities, could ever have enabled the Committee to present to the Public so full, and, as they trust, so satisfactory a Statement of the Number of Persons who have been relieved, and of the Extent of that Relief, as will be found in the annexed Report.—Out of One Thousand and Forty Cases returned to the Committee as Killed or Wounded in this gallant Engagement, they have happily, with the Exception of Thirty-six Cases, found out, and given Gratuities or Annuities to all the Parties, or their Families and Relatives, exclusively of Twenty-two, who have lost all Claim to Gratuities by Desertion, or who were not, upon further Enquiries, found to have been Wounded.

It is with great Satisfaction that the Committee beg Leave to state, from the Returns made to them soon after the Action, that the Naval Service of this Country has been greatly indebted to the early and able Assistance of the Surgeons and Medical Men of the Fleet, and of the different Hospitals on Shore, for the speedy Recovery of so many Wounded Men.

Gratuities have been paid either directly to the Parties themselves, or to their Families; and Monies have been frequently lodged in the Hands of Friends, for their Benefit, under the Sanction of the Committee, to be paid by Installments, for their Relief, or for the Apprenticeship of Children. In Cases of Death, Attention has been paid under similar Trusts, to the Widows, and to the Fatherless, or to the Relatives of the Deceased.

Annuities have been granted to the Families of the Killed, or to those who have lost Sight or Limb, or who have been disabled by Wounds from providing for themselves or their Families; and Care will be taken to secure the Annual Payment of the same, under certain Regulations and Certificates, free of all Expence to the Parties interested.

Relief has not been confined to British Subjects only; but every Attention has been paid to Foreigners who were on board the Fleet, they having by their Services acquired a natural and a national Claim, to Gratuities for their Sufferings in Defence of this Country.

A Sum has been reserved for the Thirty-six Cases which the Committee have not been able yet to find out. As most of the Cases are those of Foreigners, it is intended to adver-

on or before the 13th Day of August next, to come in and prove their Debts before Alexander Popham, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Merchant-Seamen's Office, July 9, 1801.

tise them again; and, if Claimants are not found within Twelve Months, to recommend the Gratuities that then may be due to Foreigners, to be paid over to the Ministers or Heads of Foreign Churches or Communities in London, or to the Consuls of the different Nations to which the Seamen respectively belong, for the Benefit and Relief of those foreign and distressed Seamen that may frequent our Ports in Time of Peace.

The Committee beg Leave to state, that the Subscription raised in Scotland, under the Management of a Committee in Edinburgh, subject to the Appropriation and Recommendation of this Committee, amounted, with Interest, to 3549 l. 7s. 8d.; and that, after the Payment of Gratuities and Expences, the Balance of 1402 l. 3s. 2d. has been remitted to this Committee, to be applied to the Purposes of this Subscription.—It is with Pleasure they make their public Acknowledgments for the great Assistance they have received from that Committee, and for the active Services rendered by them on this Occasion.

The Subscriptions from Ireland and the East Indies, which have been equally liberal, have been included in the General Fund.

The Committee, wishing to make some further Provision for the Children and Families of those who were Killed or Wounded on the 11th of October 1797, beg to recommend a Sum to be given to the Merchant-Seamen's Office, to the Marine Society, and to the Naval Asylum, respectively, for the Benefit of such Children and Families as may stand in Need of Relief from those Institutions.

The Committee, in discharging the Trust reposed in them, think it their Duty briefly to state the Amount of Receipts and Disbursements, and to recommend to a General Meeting of Subscribers the Appropriation of any eventual Balance, and of any unclaimed Gratuities, after a certain Period, to public Institutions and Objects ultimately connected with the Relief and Support of that useful Class of Men, who have ever formed the great Strength and Nursery of the Commerce and of the Navy of Great Britain.

Resolved,

That this Meeting do approve of the foregoing Report and General Statement of the Account.

Resolved,

That the Sum of Two Hundred Guineas be presented to the Merchant-Seamen's Office, and the like Sum to the Marine Society and the Naval Asylum, respectively, as Institutions intimately connected with the Welfare and Prosperity of the Commerce and Navy of this Country; and as tending to afford, in Peace and in War, Relief and Assistance to a Number of Seamen, with their Families, who have served on board of Admiral Lord Duncan's Fleet.

Resolved,

That the Balance, and all Gratuities voted and outstanding, if not claimed by the Parties themselves, or their Families or Relatives, within Twelve Months from the Date hereof, be at the Disposal of the Committee, in such Manner, and to such Objects, as they may think proper to direct.

Resolved,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Calverley Bewicke, Esq. Chairman of the Committee, for his constant and unremitting Attention in the Management and Concerns of the Subscription, and for the great Zeal and Humanity he has ever exercised towards those numerous Objects who have merited the Attention and Liberality of the Public.

Resolved,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to William Vaughan, Esq; for the indefatigable Pains, and the unwearied Zeal and Attention he has ever manifested to the Concerns of the Committee.

Resolved,

That the foregoing Proceedings be advertised in the London Gazette and Public Papers.

CALVERLEY BEWICKE, Chairman.

Admiralty-Office, July 28, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, the 23d Instant.

S I R,

I Have the Honor of inclosing, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Brisbane, of His Majesty's Ship the Doris, who commands the Frigates employed in watching the Enemy's Fleet at the Entrance of Brest Harbour, in which important Service he has shewn a great Deal of Zeal and Enterprize.

This daring Exploit appears to me to stand as high in point of Credit to his Majesty's Arm, and Glory to those brave Officers and Men who have so nobly achieved it, as any of the Kind ever performed.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that a most daring and gallant Enterprize was last Night undertaken by the Boats of His Majesty's Ships Doris, Beaulieu, and Uranie, entirely manned by Volunteers, under the Direction of Lieutenant Losack of the Ville de Paris, whose Gallantry on the Occasion is better-felt than expressed, who succeeded in boarding and carrying the French National Ship La Chevette, mounting Twenty Guns, manned and completely prepared with Three Hundred and Fifty Men, under the Batteries in the Bay of Cameret, and in the Presence of the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

Any Comments of mine would fall far short of the Merit due to those gallant Officers, Seamen, and Marines employed upon this Service: It is but Justice to subjoin their Names and Qualities*, who have so nobly added an additional Lustre to His Majesty's Arms.

I have most sincerely to regret the Loss of the Killed and Wounded, but when compared with that of the Enemy, it is comparatively small. I cannot conclude without returning my warmest Thanks to Captains Poyntz and Gage for their judicious Arrangements of their Boats. I beg to mention that Captain Jervis, of His Majesty's Ship Robust, very handsomely sent his Barge and Pinnace on this Service; likewise Lieutenant Spencer, who placed His Majesty's Hired Cutter Telemachus in the Goulet, and prevented any Assistance, by Boats, the Enemy might have attempted.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

C. BRISBANE.

Admiralty-Office, August 1, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Cesar, at Gibraltar, the 6th July 1801.

S I R,

I Have to request you will be pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, conformably to my Letter of Yesterday's Date, I stood through the Streights, with His Majesty's Squadron under my Orders, with the Intention of attacking Three French Line of Battle Ships and a Frigate, that I had received Information of being at Anchor off Algeziras; on opening Cabareta Point, I found the Ships lay at a considerable Distance from the Enemy's Batteries, and having a leading Wind up to them, afforded every reasonable Hope of Success in the Attack.

I had previously directed Captain Hood, in the Venerable, from his Experience and Knowledge of the Anchorage, to lead the Squadron, which he executed with his accustomed Gallantry, and although it was not intended he should anchor, he found himself under the Necessity so to do, from the Wind's failing, (a Circumstance so much to be apprehended in this Country,) and to which Circumstance I have to regret the Want of Success in this well-intended Enterprize; Captain Stirling anchored opposite to the inner Ship of the Enemy, and brought the Pompée to Action in the most spirited and gallant Manner, which was also followed by the Commanders of every Ship in the Squadron.

Captains Darby and Ferris, owing to light Winds, were prevented for a considerable Time from coming into Action; at length the Hannibal getting a Breeze, Captain Ferris had the most favorable Prospect of being alongside one of the Enemy's Ships, when the Hannibal unfortunately took the Ground, and I am extremely concerned to acquaint their Lordships, that after having made every possible Effort with this Ship and the Audacious, to cover her from the Enemy, I was under the Necessity to make Sail, being at the Time only Three Cables' Length from one of the Enemy's Batteries.

My Thanks are particularly due to all the Captains, Officers, and Men under my Orders; and although their Endeavours have not been crowned with Success, I trust the Thousands of Spectators from His Majesty's Garrison, and also the surrounding Coast, will do Justice to their Valour and Intrepidity, which was not to be checked by the Fire from the numerous Batteries, however formidable, that surround Algeziras.

I feel it incumbent upon me to state to their Lordships the great Merits of Captain Brenton, of the Cæsar, whose cool, judicious and intrepid Conduct, I will venture to pronounce, were never surpassed. I also beg I have to recommend to their Lordships' Notice my Lieut. Mr. Philip Dumaresq, who has served with me from the Commencement of this War, and is a most deserving Officer. Mr. Lamborne and the other Lieutenants are also entitled to great Praise, as well as Captain Maxwell of the Marines, and the Officers of his Corps serving on board the Cæsar.

The Enemy's Ships consisted of Two of Eighty-four Guns, and One of Seventy-four, with a large Frigate; Two of the former are aground, and the Whole are rendered totally unserviceable.

I cannot close this Letter without rendering the most ample Justice to the great Bravery of Captain Ferris: the Loss in his Ship must have been very considerable both in Officers and Men; but I have the Satisfaction to be informed, that His Majesty has not lost so valuable an Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

The Honorable Captain Dundas, of His Majesty's Polacre the Calpe, made his Vessel as useful as possible, and kept up a spirited Fire on one of the Enemy's Batteries. I have also to express my Approbation of Lieutenant Janverin, Commander of the Gun Boats, who having joined me with Intelligence served as Volunteer on board the Cæsar.

Admiralty-Office, August 1, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, dated on board His Majesty's Ship Cæsar, Gibraltar Mole, 10th July 1801, to Evan Nepean, Esq.

SIR,

I Herewith enclose the Copy of a Letter from Captain Ferris, of His Majesty's late Ship Hannibal, which I request you will please to lay before their Lordships; and I have only to express my deep Regret that his well-meant Endeavours to bring his Ship to close Action should have occasioned so severe a Loss.

J. SAUMAREZ.

SIR,

Algerias, July 7, 1801.

I Have little more to tell you of the Fate of His Majesty's Ship Hannibal than yourself must have observed, only, that from the Number of Batteries and Ships, Gun-Boats, &c. we had to encounter, our Guns soon got knocked up; and I found it was impossible to do any Thing either for the Preservation of the Ship or for the Good of the Service, our Boats, Sails, Rigging, and Springs being all shot away; and having so many Killed and Wounded, which will appear by the annexed List, I thought it prudent to strike, and thereby preserve the Lives of the brave Men that remained.

Had I been successful in the View before me, previous to the Ship's taking the Ground, my Praises of the Conduct of my Officers and Ship's Company could not have exceeded their Merits; but I have, notwithstanding, the Satisfaction to say, that every Order was observed and carried into Execution with that Promptitude and Alacrity becoming British Officers and Seamen.

I am, &c. (Signed) S. FERRIS.

*Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez,

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, July 31, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to enclose to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Hotham, of His Majesty's Ship the Immortalité, acquainting me with his having captured the Four Masted French Privateer therein mentioned.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Immortalité, at Sea, July 31, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that at One o'Clock in the Morning of the 27th Instant, in Latitude 43 Deg. 34 Min. N. and Longitude 11 Deg. 42 Min. W. I had the good Fortune to fall in with, and, at Half past Seven, to capture a remarkably fine and singularly constructed French Privateer with Four Masts, named L'Invention, carrying Twenty-four Guns on a Rush Deck, and Two Hundred and Ten Men. She is quite New, had only left Bourdeaux Nine Days before on her first Cruise, and had taken nothing. She is a beautiful Vessel, on a Plan entirely peculiar to herself, designed by her Commander Mr. Thibaut, and of extraordinary Dimensions, being One Hundred and Forty-seven Feet long and Twenty-seven wide, each Mast is rigged in the usual Manner, and she appears to me to answer perfectly well.

During the Chace, at Daylight, His Majesty's Ship Arethusa was seen at a Distance, who joined in the Pursuit, and from her Situation, greatly assisted me in capturing her.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

H. HOTHAM.

Honorable Admiral Cornwallis, &c.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure to transmit a Copy of Lord Cochrane's Letter relative to the very spirited and brilliant Action with a Spanish Xebeck Frigate.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

MANLEY DIXON.

His Majesty's Sloop Speedy, off Barcelona, 6th May 1801, Castello Ferro, N. Four Miles.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, that the Sloop I have the Honor to command, after a mutual Chace and warm Action, has captured a Spanish Xebeck Frigate, of Thirty-two Guns, Twenty-two long Twelve-Pounders, Eight Nines, and Two heavy Carronades, named the Gamo, commanded by Don Francisco de Torris, manned by Three Hundred and Nineteen Naval Officers, Seamen, Supernumeraries, and Marines.

The great Disparity of Force rendering it necessary to adopt some Measure that might prove decisive, I resolved to board, and, with Lieutenant Parker, the Honorable Mr. Cochrane, the Boatswain, and Crew, boarded; when, by the Impetuosity of the Attack, we forced them instantly to strike their Colours.

I have to lament in boarding the Loss of One Man only; the severe Wounds received by Lieutenant Parker, both from Musketry and the Sword, One Wound received by the Boatswain, and One Seaman.

I must be permitted to say there could not be greater Regularity nor more cool determined Conduct shewn by Men, than by the Crew of the Speedy.

Lieutenant Parker, whom I beg leave to recommend to their Lordships' Notice, as well as the Honorable Mr Cochrane, deserve all the Approbation that can be bestowed. The Exertions and good Conduct of the Boatswain, Carpenter, and Petty Officers, I acknowledge with Pleasure, as well as the Skill and Attention of Mr. Guthrie the Surgeon.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) COCHRANE.

M. Dixon, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Genereux.

List of Killed, Wounded, &c.

Speedy's Force at the Commencement of the Action.

3 Killed, and 8 Wounded.

Gamo's Force at the Commencement of the Action.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Thomas Rogers, of His Majesty's Ship Mercury, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off the Tremite Islands, in the Adriatic, 23d of June 1801.

S I R,

I Beg Leave to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Ricketts, of the Corso; as also of one from myself to Lord Keith.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THOMAS ROGERS.

*El Corso, off Manfredonia,
May 27, 1801.*

S I R,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that this Morning, at Nine o'Clock, we captured, off Manfredonia, the Corivessa, a small Vessel, mounting One Brass Gun, commanded by M. Bernard Du Bourdier, Lieutenant of the Regenerée, who with another Officer was carrying Dispatches from Alexandria to Ancona.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. RICKETTS.

Captain Rogers, Senior Officer of His Majesty's Ships in the Adriatic.

Mercury, off the Tremite Islands, in the Adriatic, 23d June, 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have the Satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship with the Capture of a notorious French Pirate, this Afternoon, by the Boats of the Mercury and El Corso: He had taken Refuge in the Morning, when chased by the Corso, among the Rocks in the Tremite Islands, inhabited by a few Renegadoes only; and upon the Mercury's Appearance landed the greatest Part of his Crew, who posted themselves with a Four-Pounder, and Musketry upon a Hill to defend the Vessel, close to which she lay a-ground with Hawfers sail to the Shore; notwithstanding this advantageous Position, the Boats, under the Command of Lieutenant Mather, of the Mercury, rowed in with great Intrepidity, exposed to a smart Fire of Grape and Musketry from the Vessel and the Hill, while the Mercury and Corso awed the Enemy by firing what Guns could be brought to bear upon him; and we had the Satisfaction to see our People very gallantly board the Vessel, and land at the same Time to drive the Banditti from the Hill, in which they fortunately succeeded, without the Loss of a Man; and Lieutenant Wilson, with the Party of Marines, maintained the Position, while the Seamen hove the Vessel off the Rocks, and brought her on, with several Prisoners taken upon the Hill. She is a Tartan, called Le Tigre, fitted out at Sinigalia, but last from Ancona, mounts Eight Six and Twelve-Pounders, and had a Crew of Sixty French and Italians; the Plunder found on board this Vessel is sufficient Evidence of her Character, consisting of Bales of Cotton, and other Goods taken from Vessels of different Nations.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed)

T. ROGERS.

Admiral Lord Keith, &c. &c. &c.

IT has been the Study of the Proprietors of the well known Antiscorbutic Drops, first composed and prepared by the late Francis Spillbury, at his Dispensary, No. 15, Soho-Square, London, and continued only and solely there to be prepared genuine, to guard the Public against the Impositions which are daily practised against Medicines possessing the first Respectability; and as the Virtues of the Antiscorbutic Drops have been found not only an Antidote in Scorbutic Complaints, but a successful Resource in cutaneous Eruptions, Scrophula, Gout, Rheumatism, and the attendant Diseases of the Nerves, as the List of Cures accompanying each Bottle, given in an ample Bill of Directions, will testify, as well as the Treatise on Diet, Gout, &c. written by the late Proprietor, (which may be also had at the Dispensary), single them out as fit Objects to try, under their Sanction, such spurious Imitations; for this Reason the Proprietors, by the Favor of His Majesty's Commissioners of the Stamp-Office, have affixed a Stamp on each Bottle, printed in Black Ink, with the Words Spillbury and Co. No. 15, Soho Square, expressed upon it, which, if the Purchaser attends to, together with the Words "Francis Spillbury, his Antiscorbutic Drops, by the King's Patent," on the Bottle, Bill, and Wrapper, with the Addition of the King's Arms on the larger, he may be assured he has obtained the genuine Medicine, as sold at the Dispensary, Soho-Square, London, in Bottles of 5s. and 2l. 2s. each, duty included.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Vice Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Kenna Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Medusa, off Boulogne, the 4th Instant.

S I R,

THE Enemy's Vessels, Brigs, and Flats, (Lugger rigged,) and a Schooner, Twenty-four in Number, were this Morning, at Daylight, anchored in a Line in Front of the Town of Boulogne; the Wind being favorable for the Bombs to act, I made the Signal for them to weigh, and to throw Shells at the Vessels, but as little as possible to annoy the Town; the Captains placed their Ships in the best possible Position, and in a few Hours Three of the Flats and a Brig were sunk; and in the course of the Morning Six were on Shore, evidently much damaged; at Six in the Evening, being high Water, Five of the Vessels which had been a ground, hauled with Difficulty into the Mole, the others remained under Water; I believe the whole of the Vessels would have gone inside the Pier but for Want of Water. What Damage the Enemy have sustained, beyond what we see, is impossible to tell. The whole of this Affair is of no further Consequence, than to shew the Enemy they cannot, with Impunity, come outside their Ports.

The Officers of Artillery threw the Shells with great Skill, and I am sorry to say that Captain Evers, of the Royal Artillery, is slightly wounded in the Thigh by the bursting of an Enemy's Shell, and Two Seamen are also wounded.

A Flat Gun Vessel is this Moment sunk.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Mudge, Commander of His Majesty's Ship La Constance, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 28th July 1801.

S I R,

I Beg you to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that at Ten Yesterday Morning, Cape Ortegal South Four Miles, a large Brig and Lugger hove round the Point, tracing the Shore within a Quarter of a Mile, running down before the Wind; relying on the Spanish Charts I had in my Possession, I run so close to the Fingro Rocks, as to oblige them to run through the Inner Channel, both receiving the Broadside as they past. The Stork, which was beating up, stood into the Bay, and by a well-directed Fire obliged the Brig to run on the Rocks directly under a high Cliff, which was defended by the Militia of the Country, who kept up a constant, but ill-directed Fire. Lieutenant Stupart, of this Ship, with the several Boats of the Stork, &c. gallantly pushed in and hove her off without Loss; she proved to be the El Cantara Privateer, mounting Eighteen Eighteen-Pounders, and Four Sixes, with One Hundred and Ten Men, had left Corunna the Night before, (with the Lugger of Ten Guns, which I also captured,) and had taken nothing.

I am, &c. &c. &c.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS.

War-Office, August 4, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Free Pardon to all Deserters from his regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of September next, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector General of the Recruiting Service in the Isle of Wight.

Exeter. Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

Winchester. And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,
C. YORKE.

for as Circumstances shall render it expedient: And such as think themselves, from Age or Infirmities, unfit for further Service even in this Country, are to accompany their Reports with sufficient Vouchers of their Inability, and the Causes thereof.

Such Officers on Half-Pay as are serving in the Militia, or are otherwise employed under Government, (Officers of the Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps excepted, whose Reports are to be made to the Generals commanding in Districts as above-mentioned,) are to transmit similar Accounts to the Secretary at War, specifying also the Nature of the Public Situations which they possess.

The General Officers commanding in Districts will make Returns to the Secretary at War of the Names of the Officers who shall report themselves in pursuance of the above Notice. And every Officer who shall neglect to make his Report, either to the Commander of a District or to the Secretary at War, according to the Circumstances of his Situation, within One Month from the Date hereof, will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and his Name will be struck off the Half-Pay List accordingly.

By His Majesty's Command,
C. YORKE.

THE following Address having been presented to the King, by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Halifax Volunteer Corps of Infantry, assembled at the Consecration of our Royal Imperial Colour of the United Kingdom, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most cordial and sincere Congratulations for the happy Reinforcement of your Majesty's Health, and with our ardent Wishes for the long Continuance of a Life so truly dear to every Briton.

Permit us once more to renew the Tender of our Services should this happy Isle be invaded, or be even threatened with Invasion, and should the fulfilment of your Majesty's well-known Desires to procure an honorable Peace be protracted by any unreasonable Demands of the Enemy, we must earnestly request to be placed in that Station of Great Britain wherever we can most effectually serve our Country, as we desire to brave all Danger for the Preservation of our beloved Sovereign, and our excellent and univalled Constitution.

Signed, by the unanimous Desire of the Corps, the 16th Day of March 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's

And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS.

War-Office, August 4, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Free Pardon to all Deserters from his regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of September next, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector General of the Recruititg Service in the Isle of Wight.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty

Birmingham. may be pleased to command; and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

Shrewsbury. And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity:

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

*Copy of a Letter from Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Red, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated on board the Macedon, off Boulogne, August 16, 1801.*

S I R,

HAVING judged it proper to attempt bringing off the Enemy's Flotilla, moored in the Front of Boulogne, I directed the Attack to be made by four Divisions of Boats for boarding, under the Command of Captains Somerville, Cotgrave, Jones, and Parker; and a Division of Howitzer Boats under Captain Conn. The Boats put off from the Medusa at Half past Eleven o'Clock last Night in the best possible Order, and before One o'Clock this Morning the firing began, and I had, from the Judgment of the Officers, and the Zeal and Gallantry of every Man, the most perfect Confidence of complete Success, but the Darkness of the Night, with the Tide and Half Tide, separated the Divisions, and from all not arriving at the same happy Moment with Captain Parker, is to be attributed the Failure of Success; but I beg to be perfectly understood that not the smallest Blame attaches itself to any Person; for although the Divisions did not arrive together, yet each (except the Fourth Division, which could not be got up before Day) made a successful Attack on that Part of the Enemy they fell in with, and actually took possession of many Brigs and Flacs, and cut their Cables, but many of them being aground, and the Moment of the Battle's ceasing on board them, the Vessels were filled with Volleys upon Volleys of Musketry, the Enemy being perfectly regardless of their own Men, who must have suffered equally with us, it was therefore impossible to remain on board even to burn them; but allow me to say, who have seen much Service this War, that more determined persevering Courage I never witnessed, and that nothing but the Impossibility of being successful, from the Causes I have mentioned, could have prevented me from having to congratulate their Lordships; but although in Value the Loss of such gallant and good Men is incalculable, yet, in Point of Numbers, it has fallen short of my Expectations. I must also beg leave to state, that greater Zeal and ardent Desire to distinguish themselves by an Attack on the Enemy was never shewn than by all the Captains, Officers, and Crews of all the different Descriptions of Vessels under my Command.

The Commanders of the Hunter and Greyhound Revenue Cutters went in their Boats in the most handsome and gallant Manner to the Attack. amongst the many brave Men wounded, I have with the deepest Regret to place the Name of my gallant good Friend and able Assistant Captain Edward T. Parker; also my Flag Lieutenant Frederick Langford, who has served with me many Years; they were both wounded in attempting to board the French Commodore. To Captain Gore of the Medusa I feel the highest Obligations; and when their Lordships look at the Loss of the Medusa on this Occasion, they will agree with me, that the Honor of my Flag, and the Cause of their King and Country, could never have been placed in more gallant Hands. Captain Bedford of the Leyden, with Captain Gore, very handsomely volunteered their Services to serve under a Master and Commander; but I did not think it fair to the latter, and I only mention it to mark the Zeal of those Officers. From the Nature of the Attack only a few Prisoners were made; a Lieutenant, Eight Seamen, and Eight Soldiers, are all they brought off. Herewith I send the Reports of the several Commanders of Divisions, and a Return of killed and wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

P. S. Captain Somerville was the senior Master and Commander employed.

*Eugenie, off Boulogne,
August 16, 1801.*

MY LORD,

IN Obedience to your Lordship's Direction to state the Proceedings of the First Division of Boats which you did me the Honor to place under my Command, for the Purpose of attacking the Enemy's Flotilla in the Bay of Boulogne, I beg Leave to acquaint you, that after leaving the Medusa last Night, I found myself, on getting on Shore, carried considerably, by the Rapidity of the Tide, to the Eastward of the above-mentioned Place; and finding that I was not likely to reach it in the Order prescribed, I gave Directions for the Boats to cast each other off. By so doing, I was enabled to get to the Enemy's Flotilla a little before the Dawn of Day, and in the best Order possible attacked, close to the Pier Head, a Brig, which, after a sharp Contest, I carried. Previous to so doing, her Cables were cut; but I was prevented from towing her out by her being secured with a Chain, and in consequence of a very heavy Fire of Musketry and Grape Shot that was directed at us from the Shore, Three Luggers, and another Brig within Half Pistol Shot; and not seeing the least Prospect of being able to get her off, I was obligated to abandon her, and push out of the Bay, as it was then completely Day-light.

The undaunted and resolute Behaviour of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines was unparalleled; and I have to lament the Loss of several of those brave Men, a List of whom I enclose you herewith.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

P. SOMERVILLE.

of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.*

*Medusa, off Boulogne,
August 16, 1801.*

MY LORD,

AFTER the complete Arrangement which was made, the perfect good Understanding and Regularity with which the Boats you did me the Honor to put under my Command left the Medusa, I have an anxious Feeling to explain to your Lordship the Failure of our Enterprise, that, on its outset, promised every Success.

Agreeable to your Lordship's Instructions, I proceeded with the Second Division of the Boats under my Direction, (the Half of which were under the Direction of Lieutenant Williams, Senior of the Medusa,) to attack the Part of the Enemy's Flotilla, appointed for me, and at Half-past Twelve had the good Fortune to find myself close to them, when I ordered Lieutenant Williams, with his Subdivision, to push on to attack the Vessels to the Northward of me, while I, with the others, run alongside a large Brig off the Mole Head, wearing the Commodore's Pendant. It is at this Moment I feel myself at a Loss for Words to do Justice to the Officers and Crew of the Medusa who were in the Boat with me, and to Lieutenant Langford, the Officers and Crew of the same Ship, who nobly seconded us in the Barge, until all her Crew were killed or wounded; and to the Honorable Mr. Cathcart who commanded the Medusa's Cutter, and sustained the Attack with the greatest Intrepidity, until the desperate Situation I was left in obliged me to call him to the Assistance of the Sufferers in my Boat.

The Boats were no sooner alongside than we attempted to board; but a very strong Netting, traced up to her Lower Yards, baffled all our Endeavours, and an instantaneous Discharge of her Guns and small Arms, from about Two Hundred Soldiers on her Gunwale, knocked myself, Mr. Kirhy, the Master of the Medusa, and Mr. Gore, a Midshipman, with Two-Thirds of the Crew, upon our Backs into the Boat, all either killed or wounded desperately, the Barge and Cutter being on the Outside, sheered off with the Tide, but the Flat Boat in which I was hung alongside, and as there was not an Officer or Man left to govern her, must have fallen into the Hands of the Enemy, had not Mr. Cathcart taken her in Tow, and carried her off.

Mr. Williams led his Subdivision up to the Enemy with the most intrepid Gallantry, took One Lugger, and attacked a Brig, while his Crews, I am concerned to say, suffered equally with ourselves, nearly the Whole of his Boat's Crew were killed or wounded; Lieutenant Pelley, who commanded the Medusa's Launch, and the Honorable Mr. Maitland, Midshipman, were severely wounded; and Mr. William Bristow, Master's Mate, in the Medusa's Cutter, under Lieutenant Stewart, was killed.

I now feel it my Duty to assure your Lordship, that nothing could surpass the Zeal, Courage, and Readiness of every Description of Officer and Man under my Command; and I am sorry that my Words fall short of their Merits, though we could not accomplish the Object we were ordered to.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) EDWARD T. PARKER.
*Lord Viscount Nelson, Vice-Admiral of the Blue,
Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.*

MY LORD, Ganet, August 16, 1801.
ON the Night of the 15th Instant, the Third Division of Boats which I had the Honor to command, assembled on board His Majesty's Ship York, agreeable to your Lordship's Directions, and at Eleven P. M. by Signal from the Medusa, proceeded, without Loss of Time, to attack the Enemy's Flotilla, off Boulogne, as directed by your Lordship; and as I thought it most advisable to endeavour to reduce the largest Vessel first, I lost no Time in making the Attack; but in consequence of my leading the Division, and the Enemy opening a heavy Fire from several Batteries, thought it advisable to give the Enemy as little Time as possible, cut the Tow-Rope, and did not wait for the other Boats, so that it was some little Time before the heavy Boats could get up; received so many Shots through the Boat's Bottom, that I soon found her in a sinking State, and as it was not possible to stop so many Shot Holes, was obliged with the Men, to take to another Boat, and have the Pleasure to acquaint your Lordship, that I received particular Support from the Boats of His Majesty's Ship York, which soon came up with the rest of the Division I had the Honor to command; but finding no Prospect of success, and the Number of Men killed and wounded in the different Boats, and the constant Fire from the Shore of Grape and small Arms, thought it for the Good of His Majesty's Service to withdraw the Boats between Two and Three in the Morning, as we could not board her, although every Effort was made.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ISAAC COTGRAVE.
*The Right Hon. Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B.
Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.*

*His Majesty's Ship Isis, Sunday
Aug. 16, 1801.*

MY LORD,

IN consequence of Directions received from your Lordship, I last Night, on the Signal being made on board the Medusa, left this Ship with the Boats of the Fourth Division, formed with two close Lines, and immediately joined the other Divisions under the Stern of the Medusa, and from thence proceeded to put your Lordship's Order into Execution, attacking the Westernmost Part of the Enemy's Flotilla: but notwithstanding every Exertion made, owing to the Rapidity of the Tide we could not, until near Day-light, get to the Westward of any Part of the Enemy's Line; on approaching the Eastern part of which, in order to assist the First Division then engaged, we met them returning. Under these Circumstances, and the Day breaking apace, I judged it prudent to direct the Officers commanding the different Boats to return to their respective Ships.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

*Discovery, off Boulogne, 16th
August 1801.*

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to make my Report to your Lordship of the Four Howitzer Boats that I had the Honor to command, in the Attack of the Enemy last Night.

Having led in to support Captain Parker's Division, keeping between his Lines until the Enemy opened their Fire on him, we keeping on towards the Pier until I was aground in the headmost Boat, then opened our Fire, and threw about Eight Shells into it; but, from the Strength of the Tide coming out of the Harbour, was not able to keep our Station off the Pier Head, but continued our Fire on the Camp, until the Enemy's Fire had totally slackened, and Captain Parker's Division had passed without me. I beg Leave to mention to your Lordship, that I was ably supported by the other Boats. Captain Broome and Lieutenant Beam, of the Royal Artillery, did every Thing in their Power to annoy the Enemy. The other Officers of Artillery were detached in the other Four Howitzer Boats.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN CONN.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 23, 1801.

Downing-Street, August 22, 1801.

DISPACHES, (in Duplicate,) of which the following are Copies, have this Day been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely Hutchinson, K. B. transmitted in a Letter from the Earl of Elgin to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury.

Extract of a Dispatch from the Earl of Elgin to Lord Hawkesbury, dated Constantinople, July 18, 1801.

I Have the Satisfaction of acquainting your Lordship, that the enclosed Letters to Lord Hobart contain the Intelligence of the Surrender of Grand Cairo to the Combined Forces under General Hutchinson, the Vizier, and the Capitan Pacha.

Head-Quarters, Camp before Gizeh,
MY LORD, 21st June, 1801.

I Have nothing new or of very essential Import to communicate, but I avail myself of the Opportunity of a Messenger going to Constantinople to inform you that we are now encamped near Gizeh, which is on the opposite Side of the River to Cairo. We mean to erect Batteries in the course of Twenty-four Hours: It cannot hold out long, as it is a very weak Place; but it covers a Bridge of Communication which the French have over the Nile, and it is therefore essential to us to have it in our Possession. This Operation cannot last above Four or Five Days at most: I then mean to cross the River and join the Army of the Grand Vizier, who is at present encamped very near Cairo: We shall then besiege the Place, which is garrisoned by Four or Five Thousand French, but their Works are very extended, and would require a much greater Number of Men to defend them. Great Delays have been occasioned in this Operation from the low State of the River, and from the Bar of the Nile at Rosetta, which is frequently impassable for Ten Days together, so that our March has been much retarded. The Difficulty of procuring Provisions for the Army, and the Obstacles which we encountered in bringing the heavy Artillery up the River, (which has not yet been entirely accomplished,) have been very great. However we have now a Sufficiency to begin the Siege.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. H. HUTCHINSON.
To the Right Honorable Lord Hobart.

Head-Quarters, Camp before Gizeh,
29th June 1801.

MY LORD,
THE Combined Armies advanced on both Sides of the River on the 21st Instant. The British Troops, and those of His Highness the Capitan Pacha, invested Gizeh on the Left Bank of the Nile, whilst the Army of His Highness the Grand Vizier moved forward, and took a Position nearly within Cannon-Shot of Cairo. On the 22^d, in the Morning, the Enemy sent out a Flag of Truce, and informed me, that they wished to treat for the Evacuation of Cairo, and the Forts thereunto belonging, upon certain Conditions. After a Negotiation of several Days, which was conducted by Brigadier-General Hope with much Judgment and Ability, they agreed to surrender the Town and Forts on the Conditions which I have the Honor to enclose.

We took Possession of the Gate of Gizeh at Five o'Clock Yesterday Evening, and also of the Fort Sulkoski on the Cairo Side of the River: Hostages have been mutually exchanged, and the final Evacuation will take Place in about Ten Days.

I should suppose that there are near Six Thousand Troops of all Kinds in the Town, but I speak without a perfect Knowledge on the Subject, as I have not yet received any Returns.

This has been a long and arduous Service: the Troops, from the great Heat of the Weather, the Difficulty of the Navigation of the River, and the entire Want of Roads in the Country, have suffered a considerable Degree of Fatigue, but both Men and Officers have submitted to it with the greatest Patience, and have manifested a Zeal for the Honor of His Majesty's Arms that is above all Panegyric; the Conduct of the Soldiers has been orderly and exemplary; and a Discipline has been preserved which would have done Honor to any Troops.

I am extremely obliged to Lieutenant-Colonel Ansluther, Quarter-Master-General, for the great Zeal and Ability which he has shewn, under very difficult Circumstances, in forwarding the Public Service. From Generals Cradock and Doyle, who were the General Officers employed immediately under my Orders, I have derived the greatest Assistance, and I beg Leave to recommend them as highly deserving of His Majesty's Favor.

The Exertions of Captain Stevenson of the Navy have been extremely laborious and constant during this long March; they have done every Thing that was possible to forward our Supplies: and indeed, without their powerful Aid, it would have been impossible to have proceeded. Your Lordship will recollect that the River is extremely low at this Season of the Year, the Mouth of the Nile impassable for Days together, and the Distance from Rosetta to Cairo between 160 and 170 Miles. Captain Stevenson has been ably supported by Captains Morrison, Curry, and Hillyar, who were employed under him. The Service in which they have been engaged has not been a brilliant one, but I hope it will be recollected that it has been most useful, and has required constant Vigilance and Attention; it has lasted now for many Weeks; the Labour has been excessive, and the Fatigue greater than I can express.

This Dispatch will be delivered to you by my Aid-de-Camp, Major Montréfor, who has been in the most intimate Habits of Confidence with me since my Arrival in Egypt, and will be able to give your Lordship a most perfect Account of the Situation of Affairs in this Country. I beg Leave to recommend him to your Lordship's Protection, as an Officer of Merit, and highly deserving of His Majesty's Favor.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. H. HUTCHINSON, Major-General.

To the Right Honorable Lord Hobart,

TRANSLATION.

CONVENTION for the Evacuation of Egypt by the French and Auxiliary Troops under the Command of the General of Division Belliard, concluded between Brigadier General Hope, on the Part of the Commander in Chief of the British Army in Egypt, Osman Bey, on the Part of his Highness the Grand Vizier, and Isaac Bey, on the Part of his Highness the Captain Pacha; the Citizens Dongolet, General of Brigade, Morand, General of Brigade, and Tarayre, Chief of Brigade, on the Part of the General of Division Belliard, commanding a Body of French and Auxiliary Troops. The Commissioners above named having met and conferred, after the Exchange of their respective Powers, have agreed upon the following Articles:

Art. I. The French Forces of every Description, and the Auxiliary Troops under the Command of the General of Division Belliard, shall evacuate the City of Cairo, the Citadel, the Forts of Boulac, Giza, and all that Part of Egypt which they now occupy.

Art. II. The French and Auxiliary Troops shall retire by Land to Rosetta, proceeding by the Left Bank of the Nile, with their Arms, Baggage, Field Artillery and Ammunition, to be there embarked and conveyed to the French Ports of the Mediterranean, with their Arms, Artillery, Baggage, and Effects, at the Expence of the Allied Powers. The Embarkation of the said French and Auxiliary Troops shall take Place as soon as possible, but at the latest within Fifteen Days from the Date of the Ratification of the present Convention.—It is also agreed that the said Troops shall be conveyed to the French Ports above-mentioned, by the most direct and expeditious Route.

Art. III. From the Date of the Signature and the Ratification of the present Convention, Hostilities shall cease on both Sides. The Fort of Sulokky, and the Gate of the Pyramids, of the Town of Giza, shall be delivered up to the Allied Army. The Line of advanced Posts of the Armies respectively shall be fixed by Commissioners, named for this Purpose, and the most positive Orders shall be given that these shall not be encroached upon, in order to avoid all Disputes; and if any shall arise, they are to be determined in an amicable Manner.

Art. IV. Twelve Days after the Ratification of the present Convention, the City of Cairo, the Citadel, the Forts, and the Town of Boulac, shall be evacuated by the French and Auxiliary Troops, who will retire to Ibrahim Bey, the Isle of Rhoda, and its Dependencies, the Fort of Fouerey and Gizeh, from whence they shall depart as soon as possible, and at the latest in Five Days to proceed to the Points of Embarkation. The Generals commanding the British and Ottoman Armies consequently engage that Means shall be furnished at their Charge for conveying the French and Auxiliary Troops as soon as possible from Gizeh.

Art. V. The March and Encampment of the French and Auxiliary Troops shall be regulated by the Generals of the respective Armies, or by Officers named by each Party; but it is clearly understood, that, according to this Article, the Days of March and of Encampment shall be fixed by the Generals of the Combined Armies, and consequently the said French and Auxiliary Troops shall be accompanied on their March by English and Turkish Commissaries instructed to furnish the necessary Provisions during the Continuance of their Route.

Art. VI. The Baggage, Ammunition, and other Articles transported by Water, shall be escorted by French Detachments, and by Armed Boats belonging to the Allied Powers.

Art. VII. The French and Auxiliary Troops shall be subsisted from the Period of their Departure from Gizeh to the Time of their Embarkation, conformably to the Regulations of the French Army; and from the Day of their Embarkation to that of their Landing in France, agreeably to the Naval Regulations of England.

Art. VIII. The Military and Naval Commanders of the British and Turkish Forces shall provide Vessels for conveying to the French Ports of the Mediterranean the French and Auxiliary Troops, as well as all French and other Persons employed in the Service of the Army. Every thing relative to this Point, as well as in regard to Subsistence, shall be regulated by Commissaries named for this Purpose by the General of Division Belliard, and by the Naval and Military Commanders in Chief of the Allied Forces, as soon as the present Convention shall be ratified. These Commissaries shall proceed to Rosetta or to Aboukir, in order to make every necessary Preparation for the Embarkation.

Art. IX. The Allied Powers shall provide Four Vessels (or more if possible), fitted for the Conveyance of Horses, Water Casks, and Forage sufficient for the Voyage.

Art. X. The French and Auxiliary Troops will be provided by the Allied Powers with a sufficient Convoy for their safe Return to France. After the Embarkation of the French Troops, the Allied Powers pledge themselves, that to the Period of their Arrival on the Continent of the French Republic, they shall not be in the least molested; and on his Part the General of Division Belliard, and the Troops under his Command, engage that no Act of Hostility shall be by them committed, during the said Period, against the Fleet or Territories of His Britannic Majesty, of the Sublime Porte, or of their Allies. The Vessels employed in conveying and escorting the said Troops or other French Subjects, shall not touch at any other than a French Port, except in Cases of absolute Necessity. The Commanders of the British, Ottoman, and French Troops enter reciprocally into the like Engagements, during the Period that the French Troops remain in Egypt, from the Ratification of the present Convention to the Moment of their Embarkation. The General of Division Belliard, commanding the French and Auxiliary Troops, on the Part of his Government, engages that the Vessels employed for their Conveyance and Protection shall not be detained in the French Ports after the Disembarkation of the Troops; and that their Commanders shall be at Liberty to purchase, at their own Expence, the Provisions which may be necessary for enabling them to return. General Belliard also engages, on the Part of his Government, that the said Vessels shall not be molested on their Return to the Ports of the Allied Powers, provided they do not attempt, or are made subservient to, any Military Operation.

Art. XI. All the Administrations, the Members of the Commission of Arts and Sciences, and in short every Person attached to the French Army, shall enjoy the same Advantages as the Military. — All the Members of the said Administration, and of the Commission of Arts and Sciences, shall also carry with them not only all the Papers relative to their Mission, but also their private Papers, as well as all other Articles which have Reference thereto.

Art. XII. All Inhabitants of Egypt, of whatever Nation they may be, who wish to follow the French Troops, shall be at Liberty so to do; nor shall their Families, after their Departure, be molested, or their Goods confiscated.

Art. XIII. No Inhabitant of Egypt, of whatever Religion, who may wish to follow the French Troops, shall suffer either in Person or Property, on account of the Connection he may have entered into with the French during their Continuance in Egypt, provided he conforms to the Laws of the Country.

Art. XIV. The Sick, who cannot bear Removal, shall be placed in an Hospital, and attended by French Medical and other Attendants, until their Recovery, when they shall be sent to France on the same Conditions as the Troops. The Commanders of the Allied Armies engage to provide all the Articles that may appear really necessary for this Hospital; the Advances to be made on this Account shall be repaid by the French Government.

Art. XV. At the Period when the Towns and Ports mentioned in the present Convention shall be delivered up, Commissaries shall be named for receiving the Ordnance, Ammunition, Magazines, Papers, Archives, Prints, and other Public Effects, which the French shall leave in Possession of the Allied Powers.

Art. XVI. A Vessel shall be provided as soon as possible by the Naval Commanders of the Allied Powers, in order to convey to Toulon an Officer and a Commissioner, charged with the Conveyance of the present Convention to the French Government.

Art. XVII. Every Difficulty or Dispute that may arise respecting the Execution of the present Convention shall be determined in an amicable Manner by Commissioners named on each Part.

Art. XVIII. Immediately after the Ratification of the present Convention all the English or Ottoman Prisoners at Cairo shall be set Liberty, and the Commanders in Chief of the Allied Powers shall in like Manner release the French Prisoners in their respective Camps.

Art. XIX. Officers of Rank from the English Army, from His Highness the Supreme Vizier, and from His Highness the Capitan Paia, shall be exchanged for a like Number of French Officers of equal Rank, to serve as Hostages for the Execution of the present Treaty. As soon as the French Troops shall be landed in the Ports of France, the Hostages shall be reciprocally released.

Art. XX. The present Convention shall be carried and communicated by a French Officer to General Menou at Alexandria, and he shall be at Liberty to accept of it for the French and Auxiliary Forces (both Naval and Military) which may be with him at the above-mentioned Place, provided his Acceptance of it shall be notified to the General commanding the English Troops before Alexandria within Ten Days from the Date of the Communication being made to him.

Art. XXI. The present Convention shall be ratified by the Commanders in Chief of the respective Armies within Twenty-four Hours after the Signature thereof.

Signed in Quadruplicate, at the Place of Conference between the Two Armies, the 27th of June 1801, or of the Siege of Saffar 1216, or the 8th Messidor, Ninth Year of the French Republic.

Admiralty-Office, August 25, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Downs, the 23d Instant.

SIR,

HERewith I transmit you a Letter which I have received from Captain Rose, giving me an Account of the Boats of the several Vessels under his Orders having burnt a Quantity of Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, destroyed Three Gun Boats, taken Two Launches, and a Flat Boat about Forty-five Feet long, and Eighteen or Twenty Feet Wide, mounted with One Brass Eight Inch Howitzer; this Boat sunk stern of the Hound. The Business on the Part of our Boats was conducted with much Spirit; and much Praise is due to Lieutenant Agassiz, of the Hound, and Lieutenant L. Vescont, of the Jamaica, for their brave Example on this Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

The Jamaica, at Sea,
August 21, 1801.

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that Yesterday Evening, at Eight o'Clock, being at Anchor off Estaples, I observed a large Fire to the S. S. E., and at the same Time a very heavy Cannonade. I immediately got under Weigh with the Vessels under my Orders, and ran down to it. About Ten I spoke Captain Sanadine, of the Hound, who informed me that the Fire proceeded from a Cargo of Pitch and Tar, belonging to a Vessel wrecked on the Coast some Time ago, which the Boats of the Hound and Mallard had set Fire to; and that Six Flat Boats had come out of Saint Vallery that Afternoon, which he forced on Shore, and then lay hauled upon the Beach.

I accordingly this Morning sent the Boats of the Jamaica, Gannet, and Hound, together with those of the Gun-Brigs, and endeavour to cut them out, under the Direction of Lieutenant James Agassiz, of the Hound; at the same Time standing in with the different Vessels, in order to cover the Boats from the Fire of the Military and Five Field Pieces, posted behind the Sand-Hills on Shore.

I am happy to acquaint your Lordship that they succeeded in bringing off Three; the others had been previously scuttled, so as to render it impossible to remove them; however the Boats damaged them as much as the Time would admit of.

I cannot sufficiently praise the Gallantry and Zeal of Lieutenant Agassiz, of the Hound, and Lieutenant L. Vescont, of the Jamaica, with the Officers and Men employed on this Service.

Annexed I transmit a List of our Loss; and have the Honor to be, &c. JONAS ROSE.

Jamaica.—Daniel Brockelsby, Seaman, killed.
Gannett.—William Warren, Seaman, wounded.
Hound.—Thomas Hamblin, Midshipman, wounded.
Tyngres.—Anthony Judd, Seaman, slightly wounded.
Mallard.—John Bucy, Seaman, slightly wounded.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS.

War-Office, August 4, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Free Pardon to all Deserters from his regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of September next, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector General of the Recruiting Service in the Isle of Wight.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to approve of the Appointment of Charles Greenwood, Esq; to be Treasurer to the Royal Military Asylum.

Commissions in the Norfolk Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant.

Eastern Regiment.

Captain-Lieutenant Thomlinson to be Captain, vice Thomas Colthorpe Blofield, Esq; resigned. Dated August 17, 1801.

Lieutenant John Midgley to be Captain-Lieutenant, vice Captain-Lieutenant Thomlinson, promoted. Dated August 17, 1801.

Admiralty-Office, August 21, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant the 20th Instant.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to transmit to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Wemyss, of His Majesty's Ship the Unicorn, enclosing One from Captain Griffiths, of the Atalante Sloop, both stationed in watching the Coast of Quiberon.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, Quiberon Bay, 14th August 1801.

SIR,

BY His Majesty's Sloop Atalante (which I have sent to you, being short of Provisions,) I enclose a Journal of my Proceedings and Statement of the Ship, by which you will see we have barely a Month's Provisions.

Hitherto, notwithstanding all my Exertions in sending the Boats away armed on different Occasions, and moving with the Ship, I have only been able to capture One Chasse Marce, of Forty Tons, laden with Lime, not worth sending in, (in which Business we had the Misfortune to have One Seaman killed, and One slightly wounded,) and to destroy One, same Burthen, laden with Corn.

Several Convoys are laying at different Places, ready to slip out; the largest of which, (in the Morbihan,) by anchoring near that Place, and commanding the Passages to the Wellward, I have prevented moving.

His Majesty's Sloop Atalante has been rather more fortunate, having captured Three small light Boats, and L'Eveille Armed Lugger. The Gallantry of this Affair, to which I was an Eye-witness, is fully mentioned in Captain Griffiths's Letter, a Copy of which I enclose, and beg Leave to say he speaks my Sentiments on that Subject.

I hope this Account of my Proceedings will meet your Approbation; and I have the Honor to remain, &c.

C. WEMYSS.

*To the Honorable Admiral Cornwallis,
&c. &c. &c.*

SIR, Atalante, Quiberon-Bay, Aug. 11, 1801.

I Have to acquaint you, for the Information of the Commander in Chief, that Yesterday the Six-oared Cutter of His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, manned with Eight Men, captured the French Armed Lugger L'Eveillé, in the Service of the Republic, of Fifty-eight Tons, mounting Two Four-Pounders and Four large Swivels, carrying a Pound and Half Ball; the cool Intrepidity with which they rowed up in face of a brisk Discharge of Cannon and Grape from the Lugger, and the cross Fire of Two small Batteries, could not fail to excite my Admiration; they boarded and took her a Musket-Shot from the Shore, (the Crew deserting her at the Moment,) and I am happy to add, brought her off without any Body hurt on our Part.

The steady Determination and good Conduct of Mr. Francis Smith (who commanded) claims my fullest Approbation; and I trust I may be permitted strongly to recommend him to Notice, as well as to express my Thanks to the Boat's Crew who so ably seconded him.

I am, &c.

A. J. GRIFFITHS.

Captain Wemyss, His Majesty's Ship Unicorn.

PROCLAMATION FOR PARDONING DESERTERS.

War-Office, August 4, 1801.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Free Pardon to all Deserters from his regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of September next, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector General of the Recruiting Service in the Isle of Wight.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged. And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for General Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves in the Isle of Wight to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

TO OFFICERS ON HALF-PAY.

War-Office, August 1, 1801.

ALL Officers on the Half-Pay of the Land Forces, resident in Great Britain and Ireland, who are not serving in the Militia, or who do not hold Offices under Government, are hereby required immediately to transmit to the General Officers commanding in the Districts within which they respectively reside, an Account, in Writing, of their Age, past Services, and present Place of Abode, in order that their Services may be called for as Circumstances shall render it expedient: And such as think themselves, from Age or Infirmities, unfit for further Service even in this Country, are to accompany their Reports with sufficient Vouchers of their Inability, and the Causes thereof.

Such Officers on Half-Pay as are serving in the Militia, or are otherwise employed under Government, (Officers of the Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps excepted, whose Reports are to be made to the Generals commanding in Districts as above-mentioned,) are to transmit similar Accounts to the Secretary at War, specifying also the Nature of the Public Situations which they possess.

The General Officers commanding in Districts will make Returns to the Secretary at War of the Names of the Officers who shall report themselves in pursuance of the above Notice. And every Officer who shall neglect to make his Report, either to the Commander of a District or to the Secretary at War, according to the Circumstances of his Situation, within One Month from the Date hereof, will be considered as otherwise provided for, or dead, and his Name will be struck off the Half-Pay List accordingly.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.
